

VENUS IN HELL, PT. 2

Venus in Hell, Pt. 2 opens July 12th at The Hudson Eye. Following a 2023 solo exhibition and book release under the name Venus in Hell, Siena Edwards is displaying selected works featured in the book, alongside two new pieces created in 2024 from her studio in Queens, New York.

Siena's work digs into the subconscious, constantly looking for patterns. Hazy memories, dream symbolism, and whimsical curiosity emphasized by gestural lines and hidden messages meet at the center of her paintings and multimedia works.
